

H. Angleberger and Betty J. Angleberger, his wife, Lindbergh H. Angleberger and Evelyn Angleberger, his wife, Edmonia Smith Nick and George G. Nick, her husband, Catherine Thelma Endsley, divorced, Elton Willard Smith and Addie L. Smith, his wife, Lee Orville Smith, Jr., and Ruth Smith, his wife, Adah J. E. Stine, widow, John E. Young and M. Catherine Young, his wife, Frank Young and Juanita Young, his wife, Jesse Young and Virgie Young, his wife, Charles E. Young and Alma Young, his wife, Paul Young and Vernie C. Young, his wife, Earl Bussard and Lillian L. Bussard, his wife, May A. Blank, widow, and Edith Routzahn, widow, respectfully represents unto your Honorable Court:

FIRST: That a certain Charles E. Bussard, late of Frederick County, deceased, died, intestate, in the year 1939, seized and possessed of an undivided one-half interest in and to all that real estate situate, lying and being on the north side of East South Street, in Frederick City, Maryland, known as No. 25 on said Street, certified copy of deed to same being filed herewith marked Exhibit No. 1 to this Bill of Complaint. Said deed conveyed the above mentioned property to Charles E. Bussard and Katie A. Bussard, as tenants by the entireties. The said Charles E. Bussard not being married, said deed conveyed a tenancy in common, and the said Charles E. Bussard left surviving him as his heirs at law and next of kin the following:

1. A sister, Katie A. Bussard, unmarried, who died, testate, on July 27, 1953.
2. A sister, Clara E. Koontz, widow, who resides at Jefferson, Frederick County, Maryland.
3. A sister, Ella Murray, widow, who resides at the Home for the Aged, Frederick, Maryland.
4. A sister, Virginia Stockman, widow, who died, intestate, in the year 1940, leaving as her heirs at law and next of kin the following:
 - a. Russell Stockman, a son, whose wife's name is Ruth Stockman, and who reside at 771 E. 22nd Street, Paterson, N. J.
 - b. Roy Stockman, a son, whose wife's name is Ida Stockman, and who reside at 5376 Nevada Avenue, Washington, 15, D. C.
5. The following children of a deceased sister, Sara Smith, who predeceased the said Charles E. Bussard:
 - a. Hazel Smith Dutrow, granddaughter, whose husband's name is Richard L. Dutrow, and who reside at Adamstown, Frederick County, Maryland.